

Holy Orders	A sacrament where a man becomes a deacon, priest, or bishop to serve God and the Church.
Religious Life	A way of living where people dedicate their whole life to God by joining a religious group like nuns, monks, or friars.
Evangelical Counsels	Special promises that some Christians make to live like Jesus by following poverty, chastity, and obedience.
Poverty	Choosing to live simply and not own many things, trusting God to provide.
Chastity	Living in a pure and holy way, including not marrying for those who dedicate their lives to God.
Obedience	Listening to and following God's will and the rules of the Church or religious community.
Celibacy	Choosing not to marry so you can focus completely on serving God and others.
Vocation	A special calling from God to live in a certain way, like being a priest, a married person, or helping others.
Sinai Covenant	God's agreement with Israel at Mount Sinai.
Temple	The central place of worship in Judaism.
Day of Atonement	The Jewish festival for atonement of sins.
Redemption	Christ's act of saving humanity.
Atonement	Making peace with God through sacrifice.
Salvation	Being saved from sin and death.
Pax Christi	A Catholic movement for peace and justice.